School Books and Stationery for sale at the Drug Store.

School is to commence in the new college next Monday.

A full stock of Piece Goods for Men's Wear at HAMM & CO.

We understand there is plenty of game in the county now in the shape of pigeons.

We notice some repairs are being made on the bridge over the North Gaborie Creek. Good idea.

A large assortment of Trunks, Valises, Satchels, &c., at HAMM & CO.

Mr. John Stover, Republican candidate for lieutenant Governor, is to address the people of this place on Saturday night of this week.

School Books, Periodicals, Daily and Weekly newspapers, &c., for sale at Dr. F. Guilboud's, Drug Store.

Most of our citizens who went to the Farmington Fair have returned. All say they enjoyed themselves hugely.

New Fall & Winter stock of Gent's Furnishing goods at HAMM & CO.

Mr. O. D. Harris left for St. Louis on business, on Tuesday Morning last.

It came very near raining on Tuesday night. We had a "slight sprinkle." We suppose the water works are out of order, as it turned off in a "flow."

If you want a fine suit of clothes go to Hamm & Co. They keep a full stock of Ready-Made Clothing always on hand suited to the season.

Joe. Fitzkam, our little barber, informs us that he will still carry on the business at the old stand, lately occupied by Mr. Kruierem, deceased. He hopes to receive the custom of old patrons.

We regret to learn that we are to lose our gentlemanly Lower Landing clerk, Mr. Johnny Kern. He informs us that he will go to St. Louis with his father in a few days, then to remain.

Hamm & Co., is the place to go if you want a new Hat, at less than St. Louis prices.

We would state for the benefit of those who wish to have hand Bills, Posters, &c., printed, that we have recently procured an assortment of type for this purpose, and can do the work as well, and as cheap as any one. Patronize home institutions, and keep your money at home.

Hamm & Co. are in receipt of a fine stock of Piece Good, Ready-Made clothing, Hats, and Caps Trunks &c.

We are under obligation to G. W. Travis Esq., Secretary of the South East District Agricultural Society, for a complimentary ticket to the exposition of that society. It is proposed that this will be the grandest Fair in this section of Missouri. It is to commence on the 15th of October, and continue five days.

We learn from the Fredricktown Bee, that the fair at that place, came off last week. As to how they succeeded we are unable to say, but it is our opinion that it wasn't the best we ever heard of. They even slighted the enterprising publisher and editor of the Bee. They are certainly a Kurious Kind of a Kroud.—Jefferson County Republican.

You see Mr. Republican these "Kurious kind of" Kusses, had they given a complimentary ticket to the editor of the Bee would probably have been out 50cts., and these are hard times you know.

We have been unable to gather reliable particulars of the Farmington Fair as yet. We expected to find an account in the Farmington papers, but they seem to have had the "Fair on the brain" too much to find time to give particulars. We presume that we will get it in the next. We are informed that Ste. Genevieve County carried off her share of the premiums.

Marriages.

The following is a list of marriages which have taken place since the 1st day of June as recorded in the clerk's office:

On the 1st day of June, by Esq. Guignon, Mr. Jno. B. Derouse to Miss Julia Gernon.

On the 4th day of June, by Rev. Father Stein, Mr. Amareapi Grass to Miss Josephine Hook.

On the 10th day of June by Esq. Guignon, Mr. William Peer to Miss Mary Jane Tongay.

On the 10th day of July, by Rev. Father Weiss, Mr. Frankin McFichee to Miss Amanda B. Janis.

On the 21st day of August, by Rev. Father Stein, Mr. Henry Siedert to Miss Mary Annie Gattle.

Nor Recounted.

On the 22d day of Sept. by Esq. Guignon, Mr. Burden C. Jones to Mrs. Emeline Gettin, both of Perry county.

On the 22nd day Sept., by Esq. Guignon, Mr. William Penn Head to Mrs. Huld a Gatewood, also of Perry County.

On the 24th day of Sept. by Rev. Father Stein, Mr. Joseph Bauman to Miss Theresa Jokena.

This is not "our Joe," the circuit clerk. We are credibly informed of this fact. We suppose that it is some of the Bauman family though. The Jokers—t, seem to be fond of marrying, we hear of such occurrence every few days.

Ste. Marys' Local Department.

Reported each and every week by our SPECIAL REPORTER.

The streets of our town at present are very dry and dusty, and the prevalent high winds for the past few days have rendered the dust almost intolerable.

We are told by many farmers of our vicinity that not over two thirds of the intended amount of wheat will be sown this fall on account of the long spell of dry weather, which has prevented them from getting the necessary tracts of land in proper condition to receive the grain.

Many loads of new corn have already been brought to town during the past week from the adjacent bottom, and readily disposed of, there being a good demand for feed by the railroad contractors at work on our road.

Our public spring on Third st. was lately ornamented with a new pump; the want of which was very much felt by the citizens in the neighboring community. We would recommend to the Board of Trustees of our town, to have the old pump repaired and placed in one of the springs of the lower town, where it is very necessary.

We are informed by our town physicians that there is at the present more sickness among the farmers in general than they have known for many years past. They attribute it to the excessive dryness of the weather.

Mr. Handorf, of the firm of Decker, Handorf & Co, contractors of the Chester & L. M. R. R., left for St. Louis on Saturday last, to get more hands to work on the road. The work is now being pushed ahead with remarkable energy.

The general business of our little town has improved wonderfully since the commencement of work on the railroad. Two new stores and a saloon were opened in the course of the last two weeks. They and the others are all apparently doing a flourishing business.

Messrs. Chindler & Co., owners of the Ste. Marys Mills, which is one of the finest Flouring Mills between St. Louis and Cairo, are daily receiving large amounts of wheat from the country, and we are informed by the farmers, they are now paying the best prices for wheat of all millers in the neighborhood. Farmers will find it to their interest to bring their wheat to Messrs. Schindler & Co.
